[E] Early Thursday [A] morning we [B] finally got the [E] news
We [C#m] all went home that [B] evening [A] with the Clinchfield blues [A]

They [E] say they'll pay the [A] wages for anoth [B] er sixty [E] days then we're [F#m] on our own with what [A] ever we have [B] saved [B]

It's been a [E] hundred and ten [A] years...
[B] over night it's [E] gone
Some [C#m] say they felt the [B] changes [A] coming all along   [A]

[E] Yesterday at [A] three o'clock I [B] heard the whistle [E] blow
On the [F#m] last loco [A] motive of the [B] CC and [E] O...   [E]

[D] Folks are gonna [A] move on but [A] all that will re [B] main....
[B] Are the [E] tracks that run right [A] through the railroad [F#m] town without a [E] train [A] [B] [E] [E]

George L [E] Carter laid the [A] tracks so [B] he could haul the [E] coal from the [C#m] mountains of [B] Virginia
To the [A] Carolina [A] coast

They [A] built the [E] town around the [A] railroad yard, the [B] switches and the [E] signs I grew up [F#m] listening to the the [A] music of the [B] rattle and the [B] grind

Now you'll [E] never know the [A] railroad [B] ever came through [E] here Soon the [C#m] weeds will grow so [B] tall the [A] tracks will dis-ap [A] pear [A]

[E] When my [E] son is [A] old enough one [B] day I will expl [E] ain why we [F#m] live in an [A] other railroad [B] town without a [E] train [E]

[D] Folks are gonna [A] move on but [F#m] all that will re [B] main....
[B] Are the [E] tracks that run right [A] through a railroad [F#m] town without a [E] train
